Well-positioned and low-upkeep yet offering excellent space indoors and out, this solar passive property is destined to catch the eye of families to investors. Enjoy the short stroll to a choice of parks and lakeside reserves, with education centres, shops, food outlets and a cinema just a short drive away. The substantial family-orientated home has 20 solar panels and sits on a level, manageable lot, with a good-sized backyard. The main double garage reveals drive-thru access to a terrific powered 6m x 6m workshop and vast hardstand parking for a trailer, camper, boat or extra cars. This could also become a great play area for the kids, and is handy to the vegie beds. If living space is a major requirement in your house hunting, this abode delivers. Just off the entry is a spacious, semi-open multiple access lounge and dining area. The rear light-filled open hub is fabulous, with its casual living area, games zone, and meals area, family-sized, convenient garage access kitchen, and an r/c, wood fire and ceiling fan. The kitchen has the lot from plentiful storage and work space to modern stainless-steel cooking appliances and room for a dishwasher. Generously-sized, the bay window master suite offers a private retreat for mum and dad, which includes his and her walk-in robes and a pleasant ensuite. The rear family wing is also well-appointed, with a spotless bathroom, spacious laundry with walk-in linen press, and built-in robes in all the bedrooms. Well-worth serious consideration in its price category. For more detailed information or to arrange a private viewing please contact Paul Armstrong on 0459 381 382.
