Positioned in the sought after suburb of Scullin, here lies your opportunity to call this renovated property, home. We are sure this comfortable single level layout will have a wide appeal, ideal for couples seeking a cozy abode or growing families looking to settle into the area. Featuring fresh updates throughout and lovely natural light. All the living spaces are generous in size and the bedrooms alike. Off the kitchen, the newly constructed deck is covered and a great space to enjoy while overlooking the backyard. Complete with a fully fenced backyard and established gardens to the front and rear. In addition to the home the once original garage has been converted to a multipurpose room that would serve many purposes, another bedroom, or even a studio / work from home space. Including second bathroom. For those with multiple vehicles or a need for ample parking space, you'll appreciate the convenience of the expansive carport, capable of accommodating up to three vehicles plus there are additional off street parking options. Sought after and loved by the residents, Scullin offers a convenient position. Located within moments from great local schools, shops and only a short drive into Belconnen Town Centre.
