Primed for the first-time buyer or investor in a central, family-focused locale, this renewed 3-bedroom home maintains a classic vogue while offering subtle modern elements that make life easier. A timeless brick facade offers a welcoming introduction to an interior of functionality, space and comfort, greeted by a large fireside lounge with tiled floors that flow into an open-plan kitchen and dining area. Laminate benches boast practicality around stainless-steel appliances, with abundant storage options and a convenient breakfast bar making it perfect for everyday meals or effortless entertaining. A covered outdoor terrace and a huge rear yard matches leisure with practicality, featuring a substantial 15.0 x 6.0m (approx.) workshop/garage, perfectly versatile for creative or practical pursuits. Three bedrooms are just as practical for the whole family, closely served by a central bathroom, toilet and fitted laundry. Complete with split-system air conditioning, ducted heating, ceiling fans and abundant outdoor entertaining, it sits a short walk from The Pines Flora and Fauna Reserve, Flinders Christian College, Carrum Downs Plaza, Skye Primary, and freeway access.
