Are you a family with adult children who won't leave, newly retired and who loves to entertain guests or an investor looking for a coastal property to use in the future? Look no further than this beautiful property. This two-story home features a layout allowing privacy on each floor, with spacious living areas and bathrooms on both. The top floor boasts two bedrooms, an open-plan kitchen and a living area that leads out to a large, covered deck that allows you to use it all year round. On the ground floor, you'll find a huge bedroom, a second bathroom with laundry facilities, and a generous rumpus room. Located at the Crowdy Head end of the village, this property is just a 10-minute walk to all of the village's amenities. The property is currently rented to great tenants who will happily resign a long lease. If this sounds like your next home, investment or holiday property contact me today to organise your inspection or for more information.
