An Enduring Classic: A Grand Queenslander This exquisite high set 2-bedroom Queenslander, perched on a large 984 sqm block, embodies the charm and resilience of a bygone era. Lovingly maintained, this grand old home has stood the test of time, offering a perfect blend of historical character and modern convenience. Prime Location with Elevated Views and No Flooding Concerns Nestled on a hill, this property enjoys an excellent location with a high aspect, ensuring views and complete peace of mind with no threat of flooding. Just a short distance from Innisfail, you'll have access to all the modern conveniences you need. The easy access to the Palmerston Highway makes trips to the Atherton Tablelands a breeze, where you can explore rainforests, lakes, quaint towns, national parks, museums, and endless recreational opportunities. The bustling city of Cairns and its International Airport just an hours drive away. Ideal for First-Time Buyers, Investors, and Visionaries Whether you're a first-time home buyer, starting your property journey, or an investor, this solid timber home on a large block presents an incredible opportunity. With its spacious layout and timeless charm, it's a blank canvas awaiting your creative touch. Spacious and Versatile Living Areas The home features two well-proportioned bedrooms, an open-plan kitchen and dining area, and a separate lounge, perfect for relaxing or entertaining. Additionally, there is a versatile office space and a sleepout/rumpus room that can be adapted to suit your needs - whether as an extra bedroom, a study, or a play area. Comfort and Charm Throughout High ceilings, traditional design elements, air conditioning, and ceiling fans ensure year-round comfort and enhance the home's charming atmosphere. Every corner of this house invites you to relax and enjoy its warm, welcoming vibe. Practical Downstairs Space with Potential Downstairs, you'll find a handy storage room and a laundry area discreetly tucked away. This space offers endless possibilities - it can be transformed into a spare living area for kids, guests, extra storage, or a hobby area, tailored to your lifestyle. Outdoor Oasis with Room to Grow The property includes two separate lock-up garages, providing secure parking and additional storage space, facing a quiet, friendly street. The expansive garden offers wide rear access and plenty of scope to add a pool or a shed, perfect for creating your dream outdoor oasis. The established sweet naval orange tree is a delightful feature, and there's ample room to expand with a mixed fruit orchard and vegetable garden.
