This beautifully presented single-fronted Victorian cottage features a combination of traditional period attributes including iron lacework, tessellated tile veranda, ceiling roses and coloured leadlight glass, complemented by a modern rear extension to create a lovely contemporary ambiance. The renovated interior features an arched Baltic Pine hallway opening to three bedrooms, a pristine bathroom with Euro laundry and a stylish Smeg and Bosch equipped kitchen that overlooks a light and spacious living area. The living/dining area opens through double doors to a low maintenance courtyard garden with awning, that has been landscaped to provide a stunning outdoor setting - perfect for indoor/outdoor entertaining options. Other features include quality fixtures and fittings, Hydronic heating, split system air-conditioning, roof storage and rear lane access if desired. This appealing home is enhanced by a lifestyle location, ideally positioned in a quiet surrounding period streetscape, in the heart of the private school precinct; close to Kew Junction or Glenferrie Road's fashionable shops, restaurants, cafes, Cotham Road transport, great local amenities, Kellet Reserve and other nearby parklands. To Inspect Please refer to the listed inspection times.
