Looking for an investment , then this is a great opportunity. The property we are offering for sale for a bargain price is situate in the central area of the historic township of Fingal There are quite a few buildings erected in the 1800's The dwelling is internally located on a large fully fenced level block. The home is circa.1900 and from what is known, it belong to the railways and is located near to the old train station. The residence is in need of some TLC but offers comfortable open plan living, 3 bedrooms, bathroom, laundry and undercover front and rear entrances. There is a garage and a couple of covered sheds and the block is fully fenced. Fingal is located close to Tasmania's iconic East Coast being only around 40 minutes' drive away.
