Nestled on one of Sorrento's most beloved streets, this enchanting property boasts an enviable location for embracing your seaside escapades. Within a mere 5-minute stroll lies the breathtaking Sorrento foreshore, while the vibrant Sorrento village beckons just moments away. This is an opportunity seldom found and rarely matched. Presenting an original, sturdy two-bedroom beach house, complete with a garage featuring an additional shower and ample parking for both cars and boats, this property epitomizes the quintessential coastal retreat. Moreover, it holds the potential for a stunning renovation, envisioning a second story to capture sweeping beautiful bay views, or the creation of a dream beach house atop its elevated parcel of land. Strategically positioned at the narrowest point of the peninsula, with both bay and ocean beaches mere minutes away, leisurely strolls to the Koonya general store, and the esteemed Sorrento Sailing Club just around the corner, this secluded street embodies a hidden gem of tranquillity. This property checks all the boxes of prime real estate - boasting an unbeatable location, a coveted north/east facing aspect, and a sizable block brimming with untapped potential. Don't miss the chance to explore this remarkable property firsthand.
