Enjoying a private position this beautifully presented residence offers the most for an easy lifestyle. Cohesively designed throughout, the neutral interiors blend to deliver a level four bedroom, two bathroom floorplan, resulting in a relaxing and inviting property with all the functions of a design-savvy home. At its heart, two open-plan living and dining zones with a central kitchen that all play upon the rear ocean views and garden aspect. The oversized main bedroom features an ensuite bathroom with robes, while a stylish main bathroom and powder room serves the three additional bedrooms, each with built-in robes. Complete with a large undercover balcony, level and established gardens, reverse cycle air-conditioning, a large double lock up garage and off street caravan or boat parking options this property has everything to offer.
