Whether you are looking for a first home, downsizing or investment, this great property will cater to your every need. Currently tenanted until late March 2024 this East facing home built in 2015 has plenty to like about it including gas ducted heating, open plan living, large bedrooms and a low maintenance block of 450m<sup>2</sup>. Add to this the benefit of only being 30 minutes out of the Northern Suburbs of Melbourne and under an hour to the city and you have a home that has lots going for it.
