Sitting on a quiet street, with a reserve across the road this delightful property offers the opportunity for a tranquil home but with the convenience of shopping and services close by. Boasting picturesque leafy views, the expansive windows in the open plan living area not only flood the space with natural light but also frame the greenery, creating a perfect backdrop for everyday living. This lovely home retains charming elements of 1950s design while offering modern conveniences. The spacious layout ensures ample room for everyday living and entertainment, making it a perfect retreat for every member of the household. Step out to the covered back patio, a versatile space perfect for alfresco dining or simply enjoying the leafy outdoors. The backyard is a haven for hobbyists, featuring a large shed or workshop that provides endless possibilities for DIY projects, storage, or a creative studio. Unwind at the end of the day on the front verandah, listening to the local birdlife and watching the sun set over the hills in the distance.
