Buyers Guide - $1,575,000

Auction 8th June Exceptionally located in a quiet one-way street, this deceptively large terrace delivers an outstanding opportunity to acquire an impressive home in the vibrant heart of Redfern. Stylishly renovated while retaining its original period charm, it features a wonderfully spacious layout offering three separate living areas with original timber floorboards, soaring ornate ceilings and an array of preserved fireplaces. Enhanced by a series of skylights allowing plenty of natural light, it features a modern stone island kitchen equipped with Bosch gas appliances, while tiled living/dining areas feature bi-fold doors retracting to a north/east facing sun washed courtyard ideal for entertaining. The upper level comprises two well-sized bedrooms, both of which are appointed with built-in wardrobes. The main bedroom includes a stylish fully tiled ensuite, while the front bedroom features French doors opening to a traditional iron-lace balcony. Further highlights include a modern main bathroom, an internal laundry and understair storage. It is positioned within a stroll of Redfern's buzzing village hub, shops, bars and cafés, Redfern Station and Prince Alfred Park.- Oversized layout with three separate living areas- Tastefully renovated while retaining period charm- Warm and welcoming with soaring ornate ceilings- Original timber floorboards, four original fireplaces- Stone island kitchen with Bosch gas appliances- Bosch dishwasher, breakfast bar, ample storage- Array of skylights allowing abundant natural light- Bi-fold doors allow easy flow to sunny courtyard- Well-sized bedrooms fitted with built-in wardrobes- Stylish renovated bathrooms, main with ensuite- Second bedroom opens to classic iron-lace balcony- Quiet one-way street within a stroll of Redfern Station- Stroll to vibrant village shops, bars and eateries- Walk to Prince Alfred Park, rapid access to CBD
