150 Heenan Road offers your five acres of relaxing rural living! There is plenty of space for the whole family to enjoy. This large family home consists of four great sized bedrooms and the second large living area can easily be a spacious fifth bedroom. The main living area offers plenty natural light and leads to a great size country kitchen. The laundry is not too far away and there is a third toilet which is an add bonus. Other highlights to this appealing rural property are: Modern main bathroom + neat and tidy en-suite Highly desirable location Wrap around verandah and a peaceful entertaining area Powered work shed with additional covered areas Lovely lawn areas with plenty of space for kids to play Large in-ground saltwater pool to cool off in during summer The free-standing garage has been semi converted into a studio Chook run and horse yard area Plenty of we established trees throughout the property. If you are looking for more space and want somewhere that offers peace and quiet after a long day at work, then 150 Heenan Road is certainly worth a look. Properties in this area do not come onto the market very often so if you would like to know more or arrange an inspection call Lindsay to make a time before it's too late.
