Welcome to an extraordinary opportunity to discover the epitome of a dream home. Boasting stunning views of the majestic Bass Strait, Coles Beach, and Don Heads prepare to be captivated as you step into this remarkable property that exudes elegance and charm. Meticulously designed and flawlessly presented, this residence stands unrivalled in its splendour. Nestled within one of Devonport's most coveted areas, mere moments away from Coles Beach, St Brendan Shaw College, Don College, and a short distance from the local primary school, it offers a location of utmost desirability. Originally constructed in 1973, this home has undergone a remarkable renovation, drawing inspiration from the timeless Hampton's style. Every inch of the interior and exterior has been meticulously transformed, resulting in a breathtaking masterpiece that boasts unparalleled attention to detail. A sophisticated galley-style kitchen awaits, featuring ample storage and a generous pantry. This space seamlessly transitions into the main living area, where the panoramic Bass Strait views greet you through floor-to-ceiling glass windows. Step outside onto the expansive sun-filled deck, allowing nature's beauty to envelop you. In moments of changing weather, retreat to the adjacent fully enclosed patio, where year-round entertainment awaits, or cozy up indoors by the warmth of the gas log fire heater. With our ever-changing seasons in mind, this home has been thoughtfully designed. Discover three exquisitely appointed bedrooms, alongside a private sanctuary perfect for parents or guests. Tucked away from the main living space, it features a walk-in robe and a generously sized ensuite with a double vanity. The main bathroom, recently updated in neutral tones, showcases a new vanity and a luxurious deep freestanding bath. Descend to the lower level to find a spacious rumpus room and bar area, additional storage, a separate laundry, and a third toilet. This versatile space is ideal for both children and adults alike and provides easy access to the backyard via an additional deck. A double lock-up garage awaits, boasting two brand-new roller doors and internal access, complemented by a four-car carport. Immaculately presented and move-in ready, this home is tailored to meet the discerning buyer's needs—a person who values style, loves to entertain, and seeks a low-maintenance lifestyle. Resting on an approximately 669m² block, the property is meticulously fenced and features tasteful landscaping, including manicured lawns, fruit trees, and elegantly designed garden beds. Prepare to be enchanted! Properties of this calibre and in this location are a rarity, making this a unique opportunity that should not be missed.
