

150 martells road, Bellingen, NSW 2454

Sold Lifestyle

Friday, 16 February 2024

150 martells road, Bellingen, NSW 2454

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 4

Area: 3 m2

Type: Lifestyle

Contact agent

This beautifully crafted one of a kind two storey timber home offers the perfect combination of traditional craftsmanship & a unique space to call your own. Four large bedrooms & an open plan living area create a spacious feeling with enough room for a large family. Upstairs, the double-sized master suite offers a separate getaway with an outlook over the garden & fruit trees on a 9 acre bush block that adjoins Jaaningga nature reserve. There's a traditional style wood stove as well as gas & a combustion fireplace, while a wrap around veranda & glass sliding doors creates a beautiful cross breeze in the summer. There's an abundance of wildlife & a pond with turtles & lotus flowers. An 8 by 4 metre shed out the back the original owners lived in when they built the house perfect for a teenagers retreat & a 17 by 8 & 1/2 metre skateboard park to keep them busy. Ideally situated only 15 minutes to the vibrant hub of Bellingen the coolest town on the coast with its cafes, music festivals, organic markets & art camps, 20 minutes to the beach at Urunga & 45 minutes to Coffs Harbour airport etc this place has it all. Come & explore the rainforest a nature lovers paradise awaits.