

150 Tamar Street, Ballina, NSW 2478

Sold House

Saturday, 11 November 2023

150 Tamar Street, Ballina, NSW 2478

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 1

Parkings: 2

Area: 546 m2

Type: House

Ashley Goeldner
0400247801

$795,000

From its charm-filled facade to its fresh bright living spaces and delightful backyard, this attractive cottage makes a superb place to call home, with a smart contemporary design. Homebuyers will be instantly impressed by the lifestyle rewards that accompany this warm and inviting residence along with its good-looking street presence and very convenient Ballina Island address, directly opposite the vast expanse of Saunders Oval. This gorgeous home is ideally positioned in a quiet street within minutes to Ballina Fair Shopping Centre, and walking distance to Fishery Creek, the boat ramp and Richmond River foreshore. Occupying an established 546sqm garden block in leafy surrounds Bright and breezy interiors flowing over an easy-care single level Three good-sized bedrooms are all fitted with built-ins and ceiling fans A generous layout with an open living space with plantation shutters Light-filled modern kitchen with quality appliances and great storage Pleasant outdoor entertainment area and covered BBQ deck A separate garden studio or workshop with polished concrete floors Oversized carport plus additional parking on the driveway Strolling distance to shops, cafés, the RSL and the waterfront Beautiful original hardwood timber floors, high decorative ceilings