Throw all the superlatives at it you want but two words come to mind ever so easily with this outstanding property - future prosperity. Buyers with an eye to the future should take every opportunity to secure this 3.35ha (8.25 acre) property. To provide the new owner with some planning time the comfortable three bedroom home is currently leased however vacant possession can be provided should the purchaser so wish. Enjoying a magnificent frontage to Woorinen Road the options are a plenty. In simple terms if you need space and look at the big picture this property and its Residential Rural/Rural Lifestyle classification will prove to be an absolute winner now and even more so in the future.
