Introducing an incredible renovation opportunity. This charming and spacious 3 bedroom, 2 bathroom house offers a unique chance for those with a vision to create their dream family home or a remarkable investment property. Situated on a large allotment of 3,658 square metres with a gentle slope towards the rear, this property is ideally located close to the well regarded Eaglehawk Primary School. The house itself boasts high ceilings and original features throughout, providing an abundance of character and potential for the right buyer. The property comprises two bathrooms, one functional and the other a blank canvas, allowing for customisation to suit your needs. The large, original kitchen is in need of a full renovation, presenting the perfect opportunity to design your ideal cooking space. The dining room features an original ornate fireplace and intricate timber detail, adding a touch of elegance to the home. Wide verandas adorn the sides and front of the property, showcasing intricate lace metalwork and timber detail. A private, enclosed sitting room located off the kitchen offers a secluded space for relaxation and tranquillity. The house is adorned with leadlight features at the front door, adding a beautiful touch of charm. The expansive allotment is home to established fruit trees and red brick paths, providing a picturesque setting for your newly renovated home. This property holds tremendous potential for the right buyer. Don't miss this incredible opportunity to breathe new life into this remarkable property.
