

152 David Street, East Devonport, Tas 7310

Sold House

Monday, 14 August 2023

152 David Street, East Devonport, Tas 7310

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 1

Type: House

$593,000

This property is a modern and spacious family home located in East Devonport, with convenient access to local amenities such as supermarkets, bakeries, and petrol stations. The home boasts three bedrooms, two bathrooms and two open plan living areas, providing ample space for both parents and children. The modern, open plan kitchen is perfect for family meals and comes with a breakfast bar and plenty of storage space. The dining room opens onto an outdoor entertaining area, which is perfect for BBQs and enjoying the summer sun. All three bedrooms have built-in wardrobes and double glazed windows, providing a comfortable and secure space for the family. The home is low maintenance externally and comes with a remote-controlled single lock-up garage and off-street parking for several other cars. The property is equipped with gas heating and hot water from the natural gas mainline, helping to keep heating and hot water costs down. Additionally the property features 20 solar panels to assist with electricity costs, making it an environmentally friendly choice. This home is also conveniently located making it easy to access other amenities and services in the area. Plenty of storage, modern amenities and ideal family location.