The outlook offered by this elevated, gently sloping allotment is positive in every sense of the word! Visually the appeal is immediately evident from a site measuring some 652m², featuring aspects that make the most of the setting and catch natural light from every direction. Potential to plan a new home that's perfectly tailored to fit your family is complemented by the location and the lifestyle it promises. Proximity to Riverside Shopping Centre, the area's excellent schools and the CBD ensures complete convenience will accompany your new address. In addition, you'll be surrounded by families with a mindset that's in tune with yours, where everyone simply wants the best for the future and realizes this is a location that meets precisely those needs. The result is a compatible community where the mood is cool, the vibe is contemporary and your kids may well make friends for life. The natural advantage of a northerly view further enhances the chance to create, construct and complete your ideal dimensions, STCA, on a block where the prospects are beautifully bright.
