Step into this comfortable and delightfully updated 4-bedroom home, nestled beyond the white picket fence and shady trees. The warm and inviting ambience welcomes you from the moment you enter, featuring stunning natural light and polished floorboards that instantly makes you feel at home. The flowing floorplan boasts a spacious front lounge with a picturesque window, offering views of the stylish front garden. A central bathroom and a bright, new modern kitchen with stone and timber benchtops and stainless steel appliances complete the living space, complemented by an adjoining custom-made meals zone. Take your living experience outdoors to the expansive decked alfresco area with cafe blinds, overlooking the private rear yard. Well-established gardens surround the property, framing for the perfect sunset sky. Additional highlights include a convenient home studio at the rear with additional storage space, split-system air conditioners, evaporative air conditioning, a rear extra toilet, a log fire in the lounge room, garden storage shed and a 6KW solar system. Situated on a generous 789m² in a tree-lined west side location, this home is just moments away from the CBD and walking distance from schools, medical precinct, Mildura Golf Resort, and the river.
