Welcome to your new home in the heart of the city! This stunning property offers the most desirable location just a short stroll from the CBD, perfect for those seeking practicality and a vibrant lifestyle. Step inside and enjoy a versatile floor plan offering a separate spacious lounge, and a neat kitchen overlooking a large, light-filled meals and living space. All bedrooms have fresh carpet, and built-in robes, the master with an ensuite, and shared access from the lounge room out to a private patio area. The second bedroom offers external access directly to the front portico, making it the perfect home office space if required. A paved alfresco area and neat easy-care lawn sit at the rear of the home, seamlessly joining the main living hub. With secure parking off the rear lane, this townhouse offers a low-maintenance lifestyle, ideal for individuals or couples who appreciate the convenience of a centrally located property. Enjoy the nearby Murray River, where you can relax, make the most out of "Feast Street", or simply take in the serene surroundings.
