Discover serenity at 1535 Tooma Road, a captivating retreat boasting unparalleled vistas of Mount Kosciuszko, Cabramurra, and the picturesque mountain landscape that unfolds in between. Welcome to 'Antrim,' where stepping inside unveils a world of warmth emanating from a stunning fireplace, nestled within the timber-lined embrace of this extraordinary three-bedroom home. Antrim's heart is an open-plan haven, seamlessly integrating kitchen, dining, and living areas that spill out onto a 13.5-meter enclosed deck. Here, the grandeur of nature takes centre stage as you witness breathtaking sunrises and sunsets, painting the sky with hues that mirror the magic of this unique property. Nestled within a forested expanse, Antrim invites native wildlife to your doorstep, creating a haven of privacy and tranquillity. The ambiance evokes the charm of a secluded log cabin in the Canadian mountains or an exclusive lodge, providing an escape from the ordinary. Just a short drive from Tumbarumba, this retreat offers a perfect blend of seclusion and accessibility. Engage in a myriad of activities, from the thrill of snow and water skiing to the tranquillity of bushwalking, mountain biking, and winery visits. For those who appreciate the call of the wild, hunting opportunities abound. Practicality meets sustainability, as mains power and solar energy are seamlessly integrated into the property. Convenience is enhanced with a double garage, completing the picture of a retreat that seamlessly marries luxury, nature, and adventure. 1535 Tooma Road beckons - your sanctuary in the heart of nature's grandeur awaits.
