Experience the epitome of coastal living in this stunning contemporary masterpiece, showcasing breathtaking 180-degree ocean views in the tranquil beachside enclave of Point Arkwright. Nestled amongst native bushland, close to coastal walking tracks, rugged coastline and the vibrant esplanade of Coolum Beach, this property takes advantage of its prime position to offer a blissful combination of quiet serenity and easy convenience just metres from the beach. Featuring hardwood timber flooring and spread over four levels, the home boasts open plan living spaces and multiple outdoor decks that allow for effortless indoor/outdoor living and takes full advantage of the sweeping ocean views on offer. The unique floorplan is spread across four generous levels, offering plenty of room and privacy for family and guests, while the contemporary kitchen, complete with stainless steel appliances, butlers pantry, central island and adjacent indoor bar, is the genuine hub of the home and a space that even the most discerning chef is sure to enjoy. Whale watching is a feature of this home on the dunes of Point Arkwright. The upper most level is a light-filled space that features a kitchenette with integrated fridge/freezer with large island dining bench, internal cantilevered viewing area with commanding oceanic and white water views. It's the perfect spot for an office or studio or simply to entertain family and friends while cooling ocean breezes flow throughout. One floor down, the master retreat is complete with its own private sunroom, ensuite and walk in robe, as well as fabulous views which really make the most of the stunning location. Enjoy early morning walks along the beach, surfing or rockpool exploration before indulging in a delicious meal or revitalising coffee from one of the nearby shops, cafes or local restaurants.
