Step into the past with this meticulously restored 1905 Federation home, a true embodiment of character and charm. Immerse yourself in the nostalgia of original features, including fireplaces, floorboards, and high ceilings, that have been lovingly preserved to honor the home's heritage. This expansive three-bedroom residence welcomes you with a front living area adorned with bay windows, offering a picturesque view of the meticulous front garden. A built-in wood heater adds warmth and coziness to this inviting space, creating the perfect setting for relaxation and gatherings. Upon entering the front door you step into the wide hallway that gracefully runs the length of the property, you're embraced by the timeless allure of this era. The hallway serves as a pathway to the heart of the home, leading you into the sun-filled kitchen and dining room. Here, large windows provide enchanting views over the valley, creating a bright and airy atmosphere that complements the warmth of the free standing wood heater in the dining space. The bathroom, a true sanctuary within the home, is expansive and thoughtfully designed. It features a clawfoot bath, a separate shower, a free standing vanity for added luxury, and a discreet space for laundry, ensuring both style and functionality. This enchanting property boasts a captivating veranda that gracefully adorns the residence, providing an idyllic spot to unwind and marvel at the exquisite gardens. A diverse array of raised garden beds showcases a mixture of both fruit and vegetables. The meticulously landscaped gardens also feature an abundance of fruit trees. The generous size block is tailor-made for family living, with ample space for the children to play freely. The garden shed stands ready to meet your storage needs. This Federation home is within walking distance to the town, school, sports facilities and is only 30 minutes to the heart of the Hobart CBD.
