Elevated at the top of Tasman Street this fabulous home has plenty to impress. Entering the front gates, you arrive in your own private retreat. A sheltered front courtyard provides a private and sunny place to relax or enjoy entertaining family and friends in the undercover patio area. Inside you are greeted by a glass atrium which facing north creates a beautiful light filled space that is instantly welcoming. The open plan dining and kitchen space is the heart of the home and has a real warmth to it. Timber cabinetry, a pantry, Westinghouse and Euromaid appliances and a portable island bench make this kitchen an attractive and functional space. With a large north facing window, Fujitsu heat pump and Colonial wood heater comfort is a feature in the spacious lounge. Filled with natural light the hallway leads to three double bedrooms each with built-in robes, serviced by a bathroom and second toilet offering a spacious shower, good size vanity and a separate toilet. A linen cupboard, laundry with generous storage and easy outside access combine to complete this great home. Outside you will find a neat backyard offering 2 garden sheds while a carport beside the house accommodates a vehicle with ease. Just when you think this home has everything you need there is a surprise certain to impress! The large separate room could be an office or gym or even a playroom for the kids. From the immaculately presented front garden it is clear this is a well-loved home certain to delight. Easily accessible to the Central City and all amenities like pool, hardware stores walking tracks and more shops and services this property is a must see!
