Such a popular, convenient location, only a short walk to Picnic Point and neighbouring parklands. The well-built lowset brick home features a very liveable floorplan on one level and plenty of potential to modernise to reflect your own taste and style. The front living room is sunny and inviting with a built-in office adjacent. The home is positioned on a larger allotment with ample room for an extension, large shed or even a pool. The options are endless! - Convenient to both High Street Plaza and the Range Shopping Centre - Appealing to both investors and owner occupiers - Ensuted main bedroom - Living room and sunroom with full northern aspect - Rangeville State School and Centenary Heights High School catchments
