Graceful character and comfort are perfectly aligned in this beautiful three-bedroom family retreat that will require your TLC to make it your dream home. Delivering style and serenity, this solid family home with yesteryear's charm has been perfectly designed to frame lush green vistas of Dandenong wetlands whilst relishing the benefits of being close to all the amenities in central Dandenong. Located on a generous corner block that makes it ideal for redevelopment (STCA) or for someone to grab the paint brush and rejuvenate it to your liking. As you enter you would be greeted by a spacious formal lounge that leads you to a generous family area adjacent to a large kitchen overlooking the lush greens and wetlands whilst the beautifully renovated family bathroom services the ground level. This home is graced by two large bedrooms at the ground level and the master upstairs with a full ensuite. There is also a large area for storage or to use as a wine cellar in the basement. Home is further complemented by a bungalow at the rear with a separate entrance that can be used for further accommodation. Ideally placed in a peaceful position, yet close to everything, with the Dandenong Hospital, medical centres, Oasis Aquatic centre, Chisholm TAFE, Dandenong Plaza and the market and local school all within easy reach. Easy access to Monash Freeway/Eastlink and the buses are literally at your doorstep.
