Ideally located within easy reach of Morisset CBD, schools, and train station, this sturdy two storey home is ready for it's new owner. Sitting on a near level 602m² block, the home has masses of potential for renovation to turn this 'diamond in the rough' into a real gem. The home comprises three quite generous bedrooms (the large downstairs room has been used as the main), two living areas with one upstairs and one down, a large kitchen with heaps of bench space and a walk in pantry, laundry and bathroom. The front is dominated by a large deck with views over the local district accessible from the upstairs living area, while a smaller deck is located at the rear. An enclosed carport takes care of the car, while the home features air-conditioning and a wood heater. So put your creative hat on then come and inspect this home that is begging for some love.
