No expense has been spared in the creation of this luxury coastal home in sunny Scarborough finished late 2018, Oozing wow factor this two-storey stunner has been designed, built and finished to the highest possible standard. Sitting on handy Westview Street, just moments from great cafes, shops and amenities, and only a stones throw from the beach, this four-bedroom family home offers both style and substance.

Step inside the oversized pivot front door and be instantly impressed by the light-filled living space and the incredible attention to detail. From the top-quality floor tiles to the high ceilings, detailed architraves and state-of-the-art European appliances, this really is a home that is set to impress even the most discerning buyer.

Flooded with natural light, the ground floor boasts a relaxed, open-plan living space leading out on to a courtyard sanctuary. At the heart of the home is a stylish and contemporary chefs kitchen where you'll just love spending time. A wide, carpeted staircase leads up to four beautiful bedrooms and an impressive balcony courtyard. The master suite is particularly impressive, boasting its own balcony, parents retreat, huge luxury ensuite and magnificent walk-in wardrobe. With their coastal location and luxury finish, this is truly an opportunity not to be missed.
