This impressive two-story European-inspired contemporary residence is privately nestled behind secure remote gates and a low-maintenance front garden. An opportunity to experience first-class family lifestyle awaits with this enviably positioned home in the prestigious Golden Mile precinct, opposite Canterbury Gardens. The interior features elegant design, luxurious appointments, high ceilings and flowing living spaces, designed to maximize natural light. The Italian marble entrance leads to an expansive formal sitting room with gas fireplace and dining room overlooking the garden light well. The ground floor also features a bedroom with a dual-access bathroom, home cinema, kitchen and living room. The expansive living space continues in a full-width family domain, including a sleek, superbly appointed kitchen with Italian marble benchtops, premium Electrolux stainless steel appliances with Tasmanian oak floors. Opening to a tropical oasis with paved outdoor living and entertaining area, it is perfect for indoor/outdoor alfresco dining with family and friends. A circular staircase sits under a feature skylight, ascending to the family retreat, bedroom/study and four additional bedrooms served by a family bathroom and laundry. The main bedroom offers a dual-access WIR, spa bath ensuite, and a private balcony with garden views. Additional features include ducted heating/cooling and vacuum, front double glazing, as well as a remote double garage with storage, secure internal access, and off-street parking. Positioned in one of Canterbury's most coveted locations, with close proximity to Maling Road, Camberwell and Balwyn shops, cafes, boutiques restaurants, the home provides easy access to Melbourne's elite schools and public transport, all of which enhance the lifestyle appeal of this prestigious location.
