Freestanding and fabulous, this showstopping Edwardian home delivers a lux lifestyle of family proportions thanks to its architect-designed extension, high-end renovations and centrepiece courtyard to enjoy. Carefully crafted and expertly delivered, the home's spacious interior boasts three generous bedrooms with custom-fitted robes complemented by a luxurious master ensuite and equally-impressive main bathroom - both with brushed nickel fittings, rain-head showers and floor-to-ceiling tiles. Complete with soaring gabled ceilings and polished concrete floors, the light-filled open living/dining area is further enhanced by a gourmet kitchen with natural stone benchtops, ample storage and premium Asko appliances (pyrolytic oven, steam oven, dual electric/gas cooktop and integrated dishwasher). Along with hydronic heating (including in-slab heating to the extension) and ducted reverse-cycle air conditioning, this remarkable residence also includes a dedicated study alcove with integrated workstation, solid hardwood floors, double-glazed windows, keyless entry and CCTV, as well as a European laundry and exceptional storage options throughout. Rounding out this extraordinary lifestyle package is a brilliant courtyard oasis with landscaped gardens and extensive bluestone paving making it an ideal space to relax or entertain, plus the added advantage of a secure front off-street parking space via remote-control gate. Bus stop around the corner along with Jerry Joy Cafe, popular parks and Penders Grove Primary School, it also offers easy access to Thornbury Station, Psarakos Market and the buzz of High Street.
