Stunning water views, 742m² of gently sloping land in one of Hobart's most sought after suburbs! This parcel of land would make a fantastic house site, or provides the opportunity for strata unit development subject to the usual Council approvals. This is a terrific opportunity to build in a fantastic location, close to all the convenient services West Moonah has to offer. Yes, the cost to build has certainly fluctuated, but this will not last forever. Set yourself up for the future as land is king, and always will be! Contact us for additional information.
