Escape to your own piece of history with this enchanting 1920's cottage nestled in the picturesque town of Nayook. A charming retreat for weekend getaways or a tranquil country life, this home exudes character and period details that will transport you back in time. Enjoy the most breathtaking views from your front porch, with rolling green vistas that stretch all the way to the majestic Baw Baw Ranges. Inside, discover three spacious bedrooms, including a master bedroom with a feature fireplace, and an open-plan living and dining area filled with natural light. The charming kitchen features a generous timber island bench, perfect for gatherings, and an impressive Falcon stove. A stylishly renovated bathroom with freestanding bath offers a welcome escape, while the laundry boasts ample storage and a second toilet. An attic storage with a pull-down ladder, rev-cycle aircon & cosy wood burning heater are also highlights. This property is a canvas for your creativity, with opportunities for further improvements and added value. With 1012sqm of land, there's ample space for additional shedding and outdoor entertainment. Located just 14km from Neerim South, you'll have easy access to shops, schools, and medical services. Make this cottage your haven for peaceful living and memorable getaways. Don't miss out on this rare opportunity!
