Just moments away from Queen Victoria Market, Errol Street's vibrant cafes and bars, and conveniently located near city-bound trams, sits this charming two-bedroom terrace. Concealed behind its secure fence and original façade, this cozy abode boasts a comfortable living/dining area, modern bathroom with laundry provisions, and a neat kitchen that opens onto a private courtyard with rear pedestrian access via Anderson Lane. With high ceilings, classic charm and tidy presentation, there's ample opportunity to explore options and transform this classic dwelling into a contemporary residence (STCA). Perfectly positioned within walking distance of numerous transport options, hospitals, and the scenic Flagstaff Gardens. Additionally, leading schools and universities, City Link, and the bustling CBD are all within easy reach.
