Offering all the benefits of townhouse living, this sleek dual-level residence is well-proportioned throughout with flowing interiors and a fresh modern feel. It combines a generous living space, quality finishes and a central city-fringe position to deliver an excellent low-maintenance home in the high growth Chippendale market. This well-maintained security complex is also very well-located and is tucked away a short walk to Central Park's entertainment precinct, Broadway shops, CBD transport and everything the area has to offer is at your fingertips. Light and airy two-storey layout with a generous open design. A wide covered terrace plus two balconies on the upper level. Three upstairs bedrooms all have balcony access and built-ins. A modern open kitchen with stone benchtops and gas cooking. Full main bathroom, ensuite and separate laundry with extra WC. Positioned in a quality complex with a basement car space. Ready to live-in or invest with nothing more to do or spend. Walk to Spice Alley, local restaurants and Sydney University.
