A magnificent uninterrupted view over the wide green expanse of Fawkner Park is the setting for this spacious South Yarra apartment, just minutes to the tram, St Kilda Road, schools and the many attractions South Yarra is famous for. Entered through your own private courtyard, this generous two-bedroom, two-bathroom apartment is big on space and glorious green outlooks. The oversized living and dining room opens through floor- to -ceiling glass sliders to a covered balcony ideal for indoor outdoor living and dining with a mesmerizing view of the park, putting the trees almost within touching distance. Two privately zoned robed bedrooms include the main with an ensuite and courtyard garden outlook. The central bathroom features a bath and separate shower. This appealing residence also has a laundry, heating/cooling, security entrance, security intercom, secure parking for one car and visitor parking.
