Ushering in green park views, this charming two bedroom villa boasts a luminous northerly rear aspect. Set in an attractive complex, this enchanting home features French doors linking a northerly rear courtyard to a bright, relaxing living space under a cathedral ceiling. Enhanced by windows on three sides, a central meals area invites you to savour delicious dishes and is conveniently close to the kitchen. Serene bedrooms, with built-in robes, include one offering direct access to the dual entry central bathroom, which highlights a shower and separate bath. Complete with solar panels, heating, air conditioning and an automatic carport, benefitting from direct access to McAdam Reserve and a right of way, it's truly a rare find. Beautifully situated, near lively Fairfield Village, popular Fairfield Park Boat House and transport, this is a home with heart and plenty of scope to express yourself with easy enhancements.
