A leafy period pocket surrounded by Toorak Road, Fawkner Park and Chapel Street and beautiful treed far reaching views define this two bedroom apartment's sensational entry point, lifestyle or investment appeal. In a bright north-facing position on the top floor of a boutique block, its spacious proportions and contemporary presentation offer an ideal move straight in solution. Two double bedrooms with built-in robes are ideally staged at either end of the apartment for optimum privacy with a central light filled living and dining domain with lovely protected green outlooks to the north. The adjacent updated kitchen is well appointed with stone benchtops, an electric Westinghouse oven and cooktop, stainless steel dishwasher and good storage and bench space. Additional features include a modern bathroom with large shower, heating, intercom entry and a garage. In a terrific spot on the cusp of Toorak Road, step out to luxury boutiques, restaurants and bars, Prahran Market, number 8 trams to the CBD and Arts Precinct, South Yarra Station, Chapel Street nightlife, Alfred Hospital, St Kilda Road and more.
