16 Alexandra Street is the epitome of life amongst the trees. This picturesque property features stunning views of the Dandenong Ranges from every aspect of the property. The main feature of the property is right before the front entrance to the home, with a large split level deck that soaks in the surrounding views, morning sunlight and is the perfect place for a family gathering, BBQ or simply enjoying your morning coffee. As you enter the home you are greeted with a generous open plan kitchen and meals space with tall ceilings adding a sense of grandeur. The kitchen features a four burner gas cooktop and oven, dishwasher, plenty of pantry space and storage. The meals area overlooks the large living space both complemented by the hardwood flooring and exposed beams overhead. Descending the small staircase to the living area, the space feels enormous with higher ceilings and the abundance of natural light flooding in from the large windows which connect the space to the outdoor decking. A retractable theater screen suspends from the ceiling for added entertainment. A laundry space is located just off the meals area with a separate WC included. Three bedrooms connect from the meals and living areas along with the main bathroom. The master bedroom features views of the Dandenong Ranges, a walk-in robe and ensuite. The vast backyard, offers even grander views, with a firepit area for cold winter nights off the back covered deck. A large vegetable patch and chicken coop are available for homestead endeavors whilst an additional storage shed provides extra space. Extra amenities include underfloor gas ducted heating, solar panels, a split system AC in living area, extra car spaces, and side gate access.
