Introducing a remarkable piece of history - this triple Brick constructed, heritage-listed property in Deloraine has stood the test of time since 1853. With captivating charm and meticulous craftsmanship, it features Tasmania Blackwood posts throughout, adding to its timeless allure. Step through the front door, and you'll immediately fall in love with the cosy ambiance and spacious layout. The ground floor offers an ideal space for entertaining, with a well-appointed kitchen and dining area leading seamlessly to a sunny atrium. Venture upstairs to discover three bedrooms, an office (or optional fourth bedroom), and on the third level, a deceptively large space with breathtaking views of Quamby Bluff Mountain - this area is also perfect for an art studio or music room. Outside, enchanting private gardens surround the property, showcasing the beauty of every season. A variety of delightful outbuildings, including a garage, small workshop, and an old charm chicken house, adding to the magic of this one-of-a-kind home. Located in the heart of Northern Tasmania, you'll be surrounded by rolling hills, picturesque villages, and world heritage forests, including the iconic Cradle Mountain close by. Embrace the lifestyle you've always dreamed of - meander through the organic vegetable garden, savor the aroma of casseroles cooking on the wood fire, and experience a sense of community that emanates from every corner. This is your chance to own a piece of Tasmanian history and create unforgettable memories in this charming home. Don't miss out on this incredible opportunity - make this magical property yours today!
