

16 Cockatoo Crescent, Forest Glen, QLD, 4556

Sold House

Friday, 28 April 2023

McGrath

16 Cockatoo Crescent, Forest Glen, QLD, 4556

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Type: House

Carlie Penn
0754508000

Glennis Schindler
0754508000

Effortless family living and entertaining with pool

Designed for relaxed family living and entertaining, this contemporary residence is nestled in the Buderim foothills on a generous 800sqm within the sought-after Forest Pines estate. An outstanding haven of space, style, and effortless livability, it showcases thoughtfully zoned interiors with two living areas, a seamless in/outdoor flow, expansive covered alfresco, sparkling pool with poolside gazebo and cubby house for the little ones. Perfectly positioned in this quiet, family-friendly enclave, this welcoming home is within walking distance to the local playground, and is just minutes from elite schools, shops and beautiful beaches.

- Nestled on generous 800sqm in desirable Forest Pines estate
- Fully fenced with level grass, established gardens, cubby house
- Modern family design with functional, easy-care layout
- Master with stylish ensuite, ceiling fan, air con, WIR, deck access
- Further three bedrooms all with built-ins, ceilings fans, air con
- Thoughtfully zoned interiors with two separate living areas
- Open plan living/dining with seamless in/outdoor flow
- Central kitchen with island bench, quality appliances, walk-in pantry
- Expansive covered outdoor entertaining space overlooking pool
- Inviting 8x3m in-ground pool with large poolside gazebo
- Double lock-up garage with internal access, side access, solar
- Quiet community setting, walking distance to local park
- Minutes to elite schools, shops, amenities and beaches