

16 Condamine Street, Runcorn, Qld 4113

Sold House

Monday, 22 April 2024

16 Condamine Street, Runcorn, Qld 4113

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 1

Parkings: 2

Area: 673 m2

Type: House

Jarrod Perry
0434390095

Ella Brown
0403794075

Contact agent

Why you'll love it: A rare opportunity to set roots in family-friendly Runcorn, this tidy post war home offers scope to add value and capitalise on a sprawling 673sqm north to rear block. Embraced in the privacy of leafy surrounds, it's just a stroll to childcare centres, Runcorn Heights State School, buses, parks and shops. The dual level layout reveals well presented interiors with a separate living and dining space, three well proportioned bedrooms, a full bathroom and kitchen upstairs, plus a multi-purpose room, office, large laundry and extra w/c downstairs. Key features:- High raked ceilings and picture windows maximise space- Seamless flow to living, dining and kitchen areas- Huge sunlit yard provides ample space to play or extend- Neat kitchen with meals bar and quality appliances- Three bright bedrooms with fans, main has built-in robes- Family bathroom offers separate bath and shower- Ground floor multi-purpose room and home office- Internal access to double lock-up garage, extra w/c- Ample opportunity to move in now and renovate later- Easy access to medical facilities and shopping centres Best suited for: Ideal opportunity for forward thinking families or first home buyers seeking a move-in ready option in a highly convenient location.