This Character filled spacious home is proudly situated on a large 1012sqm, quiet country corner block with rural views, side vehicle access, offering 4 bedrooms, spacious open plan living, expansive outdoor entertaining, inground pool and good shedding in a highly desired location in Cundletown. Oozing character and charm, soaked with bright natural light, the home features spacious open plan living with hardwood timber floors, a cosy woodfire for the Winter and reverse cycle air conditioning to keep you comfortable all year round. Spacious kitchen with dishwasher, practical functional layout with plenty of storage and bench space and French doors that lead out to side verandah. 4 large bedrooms or 3 plus a rumpus if you prefer a second living space. The master bedroom is very spacious and features large built-in robe, quaint bay window seat and French doors onto verandah. The combined bathroom and laundry room is also very spacious and features a free-standing claw foot bath in the centre of the room. There are 2 separate toilets. The double garage has drive through access to a large, covered area which is ideal for a large van, motor home or boat or perfect as a spacious entertaining area. In addition, there is side vehicle access into the rear fenced yard. The property provides perfect outdoor living with spacious rear yard, an expansive undercover area which is the ideal setting to entertain friends and family or sit and relax and watch the kids in the saltwater inground pool. This charming, feature packed property provides great value and a warm inviting home for the growing family, in a desired location with quality schools, shops and waterways within convenient distance.
