Nestled in a quiet street this charming three-bedroom family home boasts a blend of classic elegance and modern convenience. The prime location ensures residents are never more than a few minutes away from essential amenities: Coles, Woolworths and Aldi supermarkets are just around the corner, complemented by an array of delightful cafes and restaurants. The home's design is thoughtful and space efficient with all three bedrooms featuring built-in wardrobes, ensuring ample storage and a spacious air-conditioned central lounge room, that is big enough for the whole family. A separate dining area seamlessly connects with the kitchen, creating a harmonious flow for family dinners or entertaining guests. The kitchen itself is a haven for those who love to cook, equipped with modern appliances including a handy dishwasher. The home's polished wooden floors radiate a timeless appeal, contrasting beautifully with sections of plush, quality carpet that cushion your steps. Ceiling fans ensure additional airflow and comfort in various parts of the house. Outside, you will find an inviting covered entertainment area overlooking a fully fenced backyard, ensuring privacy and safety, perfect for kids or pets. The lush garden adds a touch of nature, providing a tranquil space to relax and rejuvenate. Parking is also taken care of with the large high-roof carport.
