This fully renovated family home in a quiet, family-friendly court in the popular Baileigh Heights Estate offers expansive entertaining spaces, multi-generational living, and work from home opportunities. Beautifully presented and lovingly maintained, the rendered brick façade and low maintenance gardens welcome you into a contemporary home showcasing custom finishes, open plan living and space for everyone. The master suite features walk-in robe and modern ensuite. A further double bedroom is positioned in a private space of the principal residence which provides easy access to the fully renovated main bathroom featuring floor to ceiling tiles and frameless double shower. The gourmet kitchen is an entertainer's dream and features stone benchtops, Miele dishwasher, Electrolux induction cooktop and steam oven. The large butler's pantry features a gas upright oven, matte black sink and abundant storage. The kitchen sits central to the open plan dining living space with its soaring ceilings, hardwood floors and opens out to the all year alfresco decking space with open fire and ceiling fans. The rear decking includes a built-in bbq and is steps away from the fully self-contained unit – perfect for teenager, in-law or multi-generational living. A spacious living and dining area including kitchenette with cooktop and oven and a separate spacious bedroom. A renovated bathroom, including shower, toilet, and laundry complete the unit. The warehouse sized garage/workshop is a tradie's/handyman's dream – with enough space for a car hoist, multiple big boys' toys or a lucrative opportunity to work from home in a completely separate workspace - the choice is yours. Other features include 5kw solar, keyless entry, ducted vacuum throughout, including the garage/workshop and split system air conditioning. Positioned perfectly within moments to Knox Westfield and Studfield Village. Located within the Templeton Primary zone with Eastlink, transport and quality public and private schooling options nearby. Photo ID required at all open for inspections.
