The clean lines of this two-year-old home is reminiscent of the no fuss architecture of early beach homes of the fifties. The contrasting black against the bright white palette and hybrid timber floors is cool, clean and coastal. With the open plan living area opening onto a large rear deck, this is island living at its best. WHAT TO EXPECT WHEN YOU INSPECT: - Fully fenced 807m² block just a short walk to shops and the school. - Three bedrooms, two with built in robes, the master with a walk in. - Open plan living with the well-appointed kitchen the hub of the space. - Family bathroom with bathtub and shower. - Fabulous ensuite with double vanity and screenless shower. - Covered rear deck with cafe blinds. - Single carport and garden shed. - Solar panels and gas hot water. This is a fantastic property, still within its builder's warranty. Call me today to inspect. Macleay Island lies just 18 minutes from Redland Bay via passenger ferry and a further 45 minutes to Brisbane CBD or the airport. Our village offers all of the amenities you would expect including Post Office, medical facilities, ambulance and police officers, clubs and café's, hairdressers and retail stores.
