Occupying a peaceful location exuding style and comfort, this spacious family home enjoys elevated suburban and water vistas and creates a lifestyle filled with ease and convenience within the ever-popular suburb of Sorell. Enjoying a contemporary layout the open-plan lounge, dining and kitchen area are completed with a modern colour scheme and extensive glazing allowing the space to bathe in abundant sunshine and enjoy an ever-changing suburban outlook with glimpses across Pittwater and Orielton Lagoon. Positioned in the heart of the open-plan lounge, dining, and kitchen area, a cosy woodfire takes centre stage and serves as a terrific focal point. The kitchen is filled with modern design features, featuring quality appliances, ample storage, white gloss cabinetry, and waterfall bench top with breakfast bar to dine in. The living area opens up to the outdoors, via two stacker doors to a partially sheltered deck for year-round living/entertaining. The expansive floorplan lends itself to a variety of uses depending on needs including a home office or second living space. The properties accommodation comprises of up to five bedrooms inclusive of built-in wardrobes. Located privately at the front of the home the master bedroom comes complete with a walk-through wardrobe and spacious en-suite. The main bathroom servicing the home is centrally located featuring a relaxing free-standing bath, glass shower, and a floating timber vanity, with a nearby powder room. The laundry enjoys direct outdoor access, contains ample storage space, ideal for busy families. The fully fenced grounds are home to established garden beds and paths as well as a paved terrace. A double garage with electric door and direct internal access provides secure housing for multiple vehicles with the inclusion of an electric vehicle charger connected to 3 phase power. There is also plenty of additional off-street parking within the driveway. Close to schools, major supermarkets, cafes and being an easy commute to Hobart's CBD, this impressive family home offers a great home base and convenient lifestyle.
