Pristine and potential-packed, this freestanding and elevated three bedroom home is poised on approximately 502m² in a winning locale within the Strathmore Secondary College zone. Shape the sanctuary you've long dreamed of in an increasingly sought-after suburb, just 8 kilometres north of the CBD. Eminently comfortable, the present home presents prime enhancement, renovation, build new and development potential (subject to relevant approvals), aided by wide tree-lined street frontage. Offering a living room and kitchen/meals with all the essentials, it sits between gardens including a substantial backyard. Comfortable bedrooms begin with a generous main hosting wide built-in robes, while the sparkling retro bathroom is centrally situated and home to both a shower and separate bath. Heating, air conditioning, a long driveway and double garage add further comfort and convenience. A stroll to Moonee Ponds Creek Trail, buses and trains, it finds CityLink access conveniently close and buzzing shopping precincts just a short drive away.
