You are witnessing a magnificent achievement in style and transformation, a home that will exceed every expectation and an opportunity to secure luxury lifestyle living at a superb inner-town address. Situated on the high side of a quiet street above parkland and boasting elevated views from its extended upper level, this stylishly remodelled 4 bedroom family home offers quality modern appointments throughout such as engineered herringbone timber flooring, double glazed windows, solar power system, gas hydronic heating and split system air conditioning on both levels, huge top floor master suite with opulent robe space and contemporary ensuite, designer kitchen with concrete bench tops, quality appliances and walk-in pantry, huge laundry, study and north facing tiled outdoor entertaining area with pizza oven at the rear. A single auto garage, plenty of off-street parking and a private landscaped and fully enclosed yard complete this very unique and appealing offering. This close to everything address has all the bells, whistles and reasons to buy!
